Michael,

- During the fall semester the Head Spirit Squad Coach, Linda Gooch, addressed the Knightmoves Team reminding them of the zero tolerance policy for hazing and how this is detrimental to team culture. She reminded them of the anti-hazing document they all signed at the beginning of the year and of the consequences should they violate that document.
- Knightmoves were not allowed to travel to the Gasparilla Bowl (12/23) and participate in the bowl festivities or contest due to the this incident.
- As part of Fall Camp 2020, Coach Gooch has scheduled UCF Title IX Office to present to the entire spirit team (Knightmoves, Cheer and Knightro). This same group will also receive Active Bystander training from the Student-Athlete Welfare and Development team as part of their Fall Camp.

Cameron,

As I am sure you are aware, there has been a recently published article that shares information about the investigation with the Dance Team. I was hoping you can share with me the actions taken to address the behavior with the Dance Team from your end so that I can incorporate this into the timeline I have been asked to prepare. Please let me know if you have time to talk today as this is a pressing matter that we are wanting to share information that explains the investigation process that took place between our three areas.

With regards.

Cameron,

I want to follow up with you about this so I can be clear with the inquiries we are getting on this matter.

Can you tell me what action was taken following the interview? As I stated below, now that the police investigation has concluded, the OSC will move forward with the individual student investigations.

Thank you.

Cameron,

Are you able to share with me if there was any action that was taken by you following the interview with the student? I have recently become aware that the investigation is now closed with the University Police Department.

Please note that the media is also aware of this matter has requested any documents I have about this case. I have not created a case yet as it was under investigation with the Police; however, will likely do so soon now that the case is now closed.

Thank you for your help!

Cameron,

The OSC will address the conduct of the individual students. I want to keep Brandi in the loop. I called her this morning and shared with her the way forward from our conversation last week as well as my conversation with the student yesterday. We can talk further about where it most reasonable to Brandi within the process.

We should probably invite Brandi Stuart since she handles all conduct for UCFAA.
