NARRATIVE

On 2/23/11 at approximately 1300 hours, I responded to the Caribbean Beach Resort, located [redacted] Cayman Way, concerning a possible "rape." Upon arrival, I met with the complainant, identified as [redacted]. [redacted] states she contacted Disney on their website several weeks ago to make reservations and spoke to a man who introduced himself as "BJ." [redacted] advised BJ she needed to make the cheapest reservations possible because she was unemployed, using her income tax check, and a single mom. After asking for information on a few specials she read about, BJ put her on hold, claiming he would check on what was available.

██████████ then received a "text message" on her telephone from BJ, telling her not to make reservations and that he would book her in under a "Friends and Family" discount, assuring her it would be fine and told her to hang up, saying he would call her back.

BJ then called ██████████ and told her he was raised by a single mom and knew how it "feels to want" and had a lot of respect for women.

In order to reassure ██████████ everything was legitimate and there were no strings attached, BJ went on to say that he just felt he had to do this for her and if anything went wrong, she could lodge a complaint and get him fired. Based on those comments, ██████████ decided to trust BJ and accepted the discounts he was offering.

██████████ made it a point to tell BJ that she was not willing to trade sexual favors for what he was doing. BJ replied that he "wouldn't dare think of that."

BJ and ██████████ spoke several more times on the phone prior to her trip and claims he told her the reservations were booked at the Caribbean Beach Resort ██████████ in order to use his employee discount, he had to register under his and her name, as if they were staying together,

██████████ did not feel comfortable with that and asked BJ "but you're not staying with me, right?" BJ replied no and said he would also get her and her two kids into the parks everyday for free, explaining that he would have to walk in with them, but then leave them on their own.

██████████ arrived at the Beach Club Resort on 2/22/11 and checked into ██████████ at approximately 1600 hours. She tried to contact BJ with negative results and as she stood at the front desk, she received a text message from BJ warning her to not check in because they would charge her the full price. After telling BJ they already gave her a room with no problems, he told her he would wait for her in the parking lot.

Once they met, BJ helped ██████████ with her luggage to ██████████ and sat to watch TV with her kids as she unpacked. A short while later, ██████████, BJ, and her kids went to the Magic Kingdom, where BJ signed her and her kids into the park using his employee card. BJ stayed with ██████████ and her kids, claiming that since it was her birthday, he would show her around the park.

After riding Space Mountain with her kids, ██████████ developed a severe backache ██████████. After watching the fireworks, ██████████ told BJ her back was getting really bad and she needed to return to the hotel; BJ offered to drive the car for her.

Once back at the hotel, ██████████ thought BJ would leave but he entered the room with them, sat on edge of the bed and started flipping channels on the television.

██████████ claims she was very tired because she had driven all night and day to get to Florida and then went to the Magic Kingdom, so she started giving BJ hints to leave by telling him she had to put her kids to bed, but BJ continued flipping through the channels and not saying anything.

██████████ back pain became worse, ██████████ then sat on the bed by the headboard. Although ██████████ kept telling BJ she needed to get some sleep and put her kids to bed, BJ kept watching TV and not responding to her hints for him to go.

██████████ then claims she closed her eyes and must have fallen asleep because she felt BJ trying to pull her pants down from the left side of her hip. She told BJ to stop what he was doing and again tried to get him to leave with negative results.

fell asleep a second time and awakened when BJ again tried to pull her pants down. She told BJ to stop and he did so.

then decided to get under the bed covers so that there would be some separation between her and BJ, while at the same time trying to get him to leave by saying I have to go to sleep and I'll see you tomorrow.

The next thing remembers is waking up and saying "ouch" because "either a finger or penis, but felt more like a penis penetrated" her "vaginally."

jumped out of bed, tired, disoriented, and saying "why would you do that? I'm sleeping, go!" BJ slowly got up from under the covers and "situated his pants," claims she does not know when or how BJ got under the covers because the last thing she remembers when she got under the covers is that he was still sitting on the edge of the bed watching TV.

felt embarrassed, overwhelmed, and couldn't even look at BJ, so he got up, threw something and said "see you tomorrow!" BJ then walked out and locked the door behind him.

later learned that BJ stole her VISA Debit card, $40.00 cash, and room key prior to his departure.

On 2/23/11, BJ arrived at the hotel with his son and when confronted him about the missing items, he returned the Visa Debit card saying he found it between the seats of the car, but denied taking anything.

BJ then went to Epcot Center with where he again signed them in using his employee card but he did not stay with this time, saying he had things to do, then departed on one of the Disney buses.

According to she has saved all the text messages which were exchanged between her and BJ throughout this whole situation (Sex Crimes Detective Hall was subsequently made aware of the text messages and they will access that information as part of their investigation).

affirms she did not give BJ permission to touch her in any way and she will prosecute/testify in court concerning this incident.

I provided with a Guide For Victims and Witnesses pamphlet containing the case number.

BJ was subsequently identified as Wilbert Brookins, who is employed at the Disney Central Reservations.

Corporal Mark Whitener (C62) subsequently arrived at the scene to assist in gathering and disseminating information.

Lt. Brenda Brandenberger (PA62) was notified and subsequently arrived at the scene.

Disney Detectives were notified and Detective Chuck Cannon subsequently arrived at the scene.

Sex Crimes was notified and Detective Harley Hall (SE12) subsequently arrived at the scene, assuming the case.

Forensics was notified and CSI Gerardo Bloise (Forensics 27) subsequently arrived at the scene, processed the room, and took items into evidence (bedding sheets - victim's clothes - and panties).
