Seminole County Sheriff's Office Public Version

On May 14, 2011, at approximately 2250 hours, I came in contact with the victim, [redacted] white female, date of birth [redacted] at the Seminole County Sheriff's Office in reference to her wanting to report a sexual battery. A sworn digital recorded interview was conducted with [redacted] where she advised me that a known subject, Aaron Daniel Floyd, white male, date of birth [redacted], sexual battered her. The sexual battery occurred this date at approximately 1730 hours, without her consent while at his residence, located at [redacted] Seminole County, Florida.

[redacted] stated she met Floyd on May 12, 2011, while on a dating web site, Match.Com. They had a conversation via email and eventually exchanged cell phone numbers where they continued to talk and eventually agreed to meet in person. During their conversations Floyd would ask her question's that were sexual in nature which she told him that she only had one boyfriend and was not experienced. [redacted] said she was not comfortable with the things he was asking her.

On May 13, 2011, at approximately 2000 hours, they met at the Orlando Alehouse in Sanford where they ate dinner and had conversation. [redacted] stated they ended the night with a kiss and planned on seeing each other again.

On May 14, 2011, [redacted] and Floyd agreed to meet at a location in Sanford and eventually she followed him to his apartment. While at the apartment sitting on his bed watching television, they began to kiss. Floyd then began to perform sexual acts on [redacted] without her consent. She told him no and that she did not want to have sex with him. He took her pants off, [redacted] Floyd then forced her to give him [redacted] [redacted] attempted to get up and use the restroom and he told her "your not going anywhere". At one point Floyd turned [redacted] onto her back and when doing so scratched her ankle and then [redacted]. At one point he inserted [redacted]. [redacted] got up, went into the bathroom, got dressed and when came back into the bedroom, saw Floyd lock the door. She stated he was acting very nervous, Pacing back and forth in the bedroom and said "I don't know what to do with you now?" He wanted to go the pharmacy and buy her the morning after pill to prevent pregnancy. Floyd grabbed her arm and they drove in his vehicle to a local pharmacy where he made her purchase the pill. She went into the store, ran into the bathroom crying not knowing what to do. [redacted] purchased the pill and got back into the vehicle where he made her take the pill with water. [redacted] stated she was in fear of what he would do if she did not go to the store and take the pill. They arrived back at his apartment where she then left in her vehicle and drove home. [redacted] made contact with her mother and then came to the Sheriff's Office where the sexual battery was then reported.
