Date: March 3, 2021

In regard to the affidavit filed on February 24 by James Evans, the commission determined with a vote count of 6-0-1 and using the standard of preponderance of evidence that a violation was committed. With a vote count of 7-0-0 the commission determined that appropriate sanctions for the violation would be as follows:

- A financial limitation of $100.00
 - o To further clarify, this means the final expense cap for candidates is reduced from $2,500 to $2,400.
